LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, June 15, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States warmer, partly cloudy weather, with local rains in the northern portions, southerly to westerly winds and stationary or falling barometer.

THE JOHNS' WILL CASE.-The contest over the will of the late Rt. Rev. John Johns, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church in Virginia, was to-day transferred from the Ealtimore Court, where the suit has been in progress for some time, to the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, where the disputed will was probated after the death of Bishop will was probated after the death of Disn.p.
Johns. Bishop Johns, in a codicil to his will, bequeathed to Rev. Arthur Johns and Kinzey Johns, both of Virginia, his farin, known as "Sudley," in Anna Arundel co.,
Md. The will was first probated with two witnesses, according to the Virginia law, but the said Arthur and Kinzey Johns hear-ing that the Maryland law required three witnesses to a will devising real estate, had another witness, Cassius F. Lee, jr., of this city, sign it, and the will, it appears, was probated a second time. John Johns, jr., learning that the will was signed by a third witness while his father was in an unconscious condition, instituted suit in Baltimore scious condition, instituted suit in Baltimore. equally among all the heirs, claiming that his father died, so far as that property was concerned, intestate, the will not having & Bro.; repairing slips to J. T. Rogers. been executed according to Maryland law. To prove that the will was properly executed the two neirs directly interested asked that a copy of the will as probated a second time be sent to the Baltimore Court. John Johns, jr., applied to Judge Keith, through counsel, for an injunction restraining the clerk of the at Fairfax Circuit Court from sending out a copy of the probated will with the name of C. F. Lee, jr., attached as the third witness. This injunction was argued to-day. Gen. Wm. H. Payne, of Warrenton, and J. M. Love, of Fairfax, appeared for the interested heirs, and argued against the granting of the injuction on the ground that the court was without jurisdiction, as the case was purely one belonging to the Maryland Court. H. H. Marshall, of Richmond, Richard Merrick, of Washington, and Messrs. Wattles and Mushback, of this city, represent John Johns, jr. Mr. Mushbach argued that the Court had jurisdiction, and in favor of the injunction, claiming that if the will as probated a second time, although falsely executed, was sent to the Baltimore Court it would prove conclusive evidence against his client.

THE FARREAX CIRCUIT COURT. - The Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Judge James Keith presiding, was attended by a large number of lawyers from this city yes-In the case of Daniel Williamson against

Thomas Denty, claiming, damages for trespass by the former, the jury declared Denty not guilty of trespass. The case of Thomas Denty against Daniel

The case of D. H. Baldwin & Co., guano manufacturers of New York, against Shipman & McGarrity, Fairfax farmers, was argued by J. M. Love and H. W. Thomas for plaintiffs and Thomas Moore and Judge Willoughby for defendants. This is a suit for $500 for guano furnished the defendants through an Alexandria agent. The defendants claim that they purchased the guano for pure bone and it turned out to be Charleston rock.

Rev. Augustus Watkins, indicted for forging the names of a number of parties to checks and notes, among them the name of J. H. D. Smoot, of Alexandria, having forfeited his bail and left the county, Judge Keith affirmed the decision of the County Court requiring the bondsmen to pay over the amount of the bail bond, $400.

In the case of Sarah Utterbach against Edward Hughes, claiming compensation for 800 cords of wood cut off a portion of the White House estate, which the defendant purchased from the McCartys, S. Ferguson Beach was appointed receiver to sell the wood, and hold the proceeds subject to the order of the Court.

The Connelly will case, mentioned in Thursday's Gazette, was removed to the Circuit Court of Alexandria.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING .- A meeting of the stockholders of the Potomac Manufacturing Company, the first under the Virginia charter, was held in this city yesterday afternoon, with Frank Hume, of Washington, in the chair, and C. P. Lincoln, of Michigan, Secretary. The meeting was called for the purpose of organizing permanently as a Virginia company, and a Board of Directors was elected for one year as follows: C. E. Moody, G. C. Goss, H. E. Page, John W. Green, James Gilfillan, R. J Bright, Frank Hume, C. P. Lincoln and J. B. Archer. Owing to the absence of three of the newly elected directors no other business was transacted, and the meeting adjourned to meet again next week for the purpose of completing the organization of the company by the election of a President, Secretary, &c., and for the transaction of other important business.

Police News.—There was but one case before the Mayor this morning, that of John Hall, for drunkenness, who was sent to jail for ten days to get sober.

Yesterday evening Mary Walker, colored, for stealing articles from the residence of Dr. J. Marshall Jones, where she was employed as a servant, was sent to jail by the Mayor for 30 days. The stolen articles were found in the woman's house. Officers Davis and Bettis in searching the house found not only the articles belonging to Dr. Jones, but a large number of other articles of clothing, glassware, &c., supposed also to have been stolen.

THE SHIP YARD AND IRON WORKS.—Work at the new ship yard of the Potomac Manufacturing Company continues. The work of laying the keel for the vessel to be built there was commenced this morning.

The furnaces at the iron works have been shut down during the past few days to give time for the erection of some new machinery. A new pair of steam shears and a new gas generator have been put in, and repairs have been made to the boilers. The work of manufacturing iron will be resumed, it is thought; to-morrow.

DEATH OF PURSER McCAFFERY .- Mr. John W. McCaffery, for several years past purser on the steamer John W. Thompson, died last night in Washington, at the residence of his uncle, J. W. Thompson. esq., President of the Inland and Seaboard Coasting Company. Mr. McCaffery, who was well-known in this city, where he had many friends, was only 22 years of age. The news of his death will be received with regret. The steamboat men, as a testimonial of the esteem in which they held the deceased, will present a handsome floral tribute.
